

INTERSTATE/NEW ZEALAND DRIVING HISTORY RECORDS FACT SHEET

COMMERCIAL
PASSENGER
VEHICLES
VICTORIA

Acceptable documents and where to get them

If you have held a driver licence in another state or territory in Australia or New Zealand in the last three years, you must provide a driving history extract when applying for driver accreditation. The driving history extract must outline any demerit points and infringements you have accrued while driving in that state or territory.

This document must have been issued after your associated licence was surrendered.

Your application cannot be processed without this document.

The documents we accept from each state or territory and New Zealand are listed below. Please note, a 'record of current licence demerit points' only, without reference to infringements and suspensions, is not acceptable.
